

WHO DOES THIS LOOK LIKE?

On the first of every month I will post one of the thousands of cartoon faces that I have drawn over the years and it is your assignment (if you choose to accept it) to email me a photo of a friend, acquaintance, family member or total stranger that you think looks like the drawing. Write "Photo" in the subject line. The person who sends in the photo that is judged the winner will receive a full color print of the cartoon face and a full color reprint of the It's Another Fine Day strip of their choice. The decision of the judge (namely me...and who better to do it, but I will probably ask for help from folks who will rather remain nameless) is final. Be sure you have permission from the photoee to use their photo. Ok? Ok!
